

STRATEGIC GROWTH SERVICES SELECTS LUCKE CONSULTING TECHNOLOGY SERVICES FOR STRATEGIC PARTNERSHIP

John Young

Lucke Consulting Technology Services, LLC (LCTS) is pleased to announce that Strategic Growth Services (SGS) has entered into a partnership agreement with LCTS to support the delivery of SGS services in North America.

SGS is a global network of experienced strategy and business development executives and, partnering with the Energy Industries Council, the SGS Business Strategy Analysis is a bespoke independent service developed to support EIC members to increase project revenue and develop credible business growth strategies utilizing the extensive information contained within the EICDataStream database.

SGS is led by John Young. John has more than 35 years in the upstream and downstream sectors of the oil & gas business. He has held senior positions responsible for operations in Europe; the Middle East; Africa; South East Asia; North & South America. Most recently, as CEO, he oversaw the sale of one of Shell's Technology Venture companies. Prior to that he has held executive roles with SNC Lavalin as General Manager of its upstream business; Executive Vice President of KBC's EMEA operations and senior roles at Honeywell's UOP including leading their business growth initiative into Russia and FSU. John is a Chartered Engineer and Fellow of the Institute of Chemical Engineers.

LCTS will support SGS by ensuring that our North American customers grow their business.
